THE OVERALL IMPACT OF STUDENTS SATISFACTION SURVEY FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-22

Though the current academic year is suffered with pandemic circumstances, at the same time, our university has introduced CBCS pattern of course curriculum. To identify the stakeholders perspectives, in coordination with IQAC, college has collected feedback on course curriculum from stakeholders. After evaluating the feedback, college could able to identify the expectations of stakeholders. Following are the list of implementations by the college based on the suggestions and recommendations of stakeholders –

- Augmented sufficient learning resources based on NEP course curriculum.
- Invited academicians to deliver lecture on NEP concept of course curriculum and options available for skill development programmes.
- Conducted remedial classes for slow learners and entrusted some of the academic activities to the advanced learners.
- Provided facilities for sufficient experiments at the Geography laboratory.
- Physical Education Director has conducted Yoga classes as per the NEP pattern of course curriculum.
- Invited experts, academicians to deliver special lecture based on existing course curriculum, etc.
